MILLER-KEYSTONE BLOOD CENTER ANNOUNCES RECEIPT OF GRANT FROM THE CORNERSTONE CARES FUND OF THE LEHIGH VALLEY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

LEHIGH VALLEY, PA – Miller-Keystone Blood Center (MKBC) representatives announced receipt of an $8,000 grant from the Cornerstone Cares Fund of the Lehigh Valley Community Foundation. The grant supports The MKBC Fund which is used to supplement the purchase of supplies, equipment and other operating expense to ensure the availability and safety of the region’s blood supply.

“MKBC is honored to be in receipt of this grant to support The MKBC Fund,” said Rami Nemeh, Chief Operating Officer at the Miller-Keystone Blood Center. “We’re excited whenever a partner in the community recognizes the work that we do and supports our mission. This grant from the Cornerstone Cares Fund will help us ensure that there is always a safe and ready blood supply for our community.”

“Community and philanthropy are at the core of Cornerstone’s values,” said Cornerstone CEO, Tom Scalici. “Through the Cornerstone Cares grant program, we are proud to be able to directly support those in our area that dedicate their lives to bettering the community and serving our neighbors.”

According to Whitney Bates, Chair of the Cornerstone Cares Committee, “The Committee endeavors to support organizations and missions that make life in the Lehigh Valley and beyond more robust for all
